What is Taekwondo?
No special skills are required when starting Taekwondo classes. The fun activities employed in these classes fine tune students youthful energy into beneficial life skills. School students of all ages learn respect, self-discipline, how to manage bullies without fighting and essential self-defence skills. The belt system used in Taekwondo improves the practitioners self esteem and gives them a feeling of accomplishment. A belt is an acknowledgement of effort and perseverance.

The Instructor
Paul Clapham is an N.C.A.S qualified Taekwondo Instructor 3rd Dan Black Belt.
